Hi Karen,

Here is a draft for you to look over. There were other violations, but we tried to keep it somewhat succinct by including only the major issues. We're going to try and get it out in tomorrow's mail due to the March 1 deadline we gave them (although their consultant has already been notified by phone and I'll call the project manager today). Any thoughts you have beyond the "legal" aspects would also be helpful.

Thanks - Eric
